Village Meeting.

The annual village meeting is called for Tuesday evening at Seaver's hall and there are several articles in the warning, printed on page two of this paper, that are of special interest. One article calls for a vote on whether a new water wheel and dynamo shall be installed at Charleston or not. The auditors' report shows that there has been a decrease in the village indebtedness in all departments in the past year of $3290.80. The electric light and water departments show good gains, but the village department shows a loss of a little over $1000, the amount put into a new fire alarm system. The printed reports will be in the hands of the voters in a day or two.

Lively Town Meeting.

Town meeting in Barton proved more lively than usual. There were few "hand outs" and balloting was necessary on nearly every important office. The attendance was probably the largest in the history of the town, the floor of the hall being packed and the gallery was well filled with young people taking note of how town meetings are run. The most warmly contested offices were for selectman, road commissioners and 1st constable. The result of the selectmen contest was Reed 159, Hunt 120, scattering 7. Three ballots were necessary to elect a road commissioner for the south end of the town but the result of the third ballot was: Pierce 33, Bickford 20, Foster 9. C. E. Miles was elected from the north end. The second ballot for 1st constable resulted in the election of Hunt by a vote of 123, Goodro having 50 and there were votes for four other names. The ballot for 2d constable showed Scott 145, Stannard 75, scattering 7.

The members of the Afternoon Study club and the Woman's Literary club entertained the members of the Book and Thimble club of Orleans with their husbands and friends, Friday evening in Odd Fellows hall. There was a large attendance about 35 coming from Orleans. The entertainment consisted of readings by Miss Marguerite Robinson of West Derby, songs by Mrs. J. M. Blake and Miss Sarah McLellan, whistling solo by Miss May Wheeler, music by a quartette, composed of Robert Scott, Alvin Jewell, Gustavus Burdick and Hiram McLellan, and Hattie's orchestra furnished music throughout the evening. This was Miss Robinson's first appearance in Barton as a reader. Her selections were pleasing and most heartily received. The musical numbers were each deserving of much praise.
